ATHENS

- Syntagma Square-Syntagma Square is the central square of Athens. The Square is named after the Constitution that the first King of Greece Otto was obliged to grant, after a popular and military uprising on September 3, 1843.
- The Tomb of the Unknown Soldier-Is a monument in dedication to the services of an unknown soldier and to the common memories of all soldiers killed in any war. Such tombs can be found in many nations and are usually high-profile national monuments.
- Acropolis-Is an ancient citadel located on a high rocky outcrop above the city of Athens and contains the remains of several ancient buildings of great architectural and historic significance, the most famous being the Parthenon.
- Plaka- Is the old historical neighbourhood of Athens, clustered around the northern and eastern slopes of the Acropolis, and incorporating labyrinthine streets and neoclassical architecture. Plaka is built on top of the residential areas of the ancient town of Athens. It is known as the "Neighbourhood of the Gods" due to its proximity to the Acropolis and its many archaeological sites.

KALAMPAKA

- Meteora-The Meteora "middle of the sky" is one of the largest and most important complexes of Greek Orthodox monasteries in Greece, second only to Mount Athos. The six monasteries are built on natural sandstone rock pillars, at the northwestern edge of the Plain of Thessaly near the Pineios river and Pindus Mountains. The Meteora is included on the UNESCO World Heritage List.
- Mount Parnassus-Mount Parnassus is a mountain of limestone in central Greece that towers above Delphi, north of the Gulf of Corinth and offers scenic views of the surrounding olive groves and countryside. According to Greek mythology, this mountain was sacred to Dionysus and the Dionysian mysteries. It was also sacred to Apollo.
- Temple of Apollo-The temple of Apollo was first built around the 7th c. B.C. by the two legendary architects Trophonius and Agamedes. This temple was destroyed in 373 B.C. by an earthquake and was rebuilt for the third time.

SANTORINI

- Santorini Island-A thousand sunsets, a thousand memories, a thousand heartbeats, colours of blue red & GOLD streaking the sky of this is Santorini Island. This tiny Greek island in the Aegean Sea rich in history & steeped in myth, is situated on the southern east tip of the Cyclades Cluster. Once famous for its seafaring captains. Today Santorini is one of the most popular holiday destinations worldwide.

- Fira-Is the main town of Santorini island, located on the top of a cliff of a caldera. Though it has little except its stunning view, the museum, the cable car, and the few bars and clubs.
- Piraeus Port-Piraeus is a port city in the region of Attica, Greece. Piraeus is located within the Athens urban area, 12 kilometers (7 miles) southwest from its city center (municipality of Athens), and lies along the east coast of the Saronic Gulf concentrating all the import and transit trade of Athens. Consequently, it became the chief harbor of ancient Greece.
- Oia -Hosts the most magnificent views on Santorini and a picturesque road with cliffs on one side and sea on the other leads to this attractive town. It is famous for its imaginary sunset and its narrow passageways get crowded in the evenings. The most popular spot to watch sunset is by the Kastro walls. The town hosts a cultural Centre, Greek art galleries as well as the usual handicrafts, souvenir and jewellery shops. The characteristic classic view of Oia, is the bright white and blue of the church contrasting with the deep blue of the Aegean Sea in the background.
- Pyrgos Village-Was once the administrative capital of Santorini, Fira was later replaced, it is located on top of the hills, is the highest point of the island of Santorini, an overview of the entire island can be charming scenery. The whole town was located in a small scale 33 churches. In 1995, the village on the slopes was declared protected. The hillside village was declared a protected settlement in 1995.
- Profitis Ilias-It is a monastery of the same name which was dedicated to the prophet Elijah. The solid facade of its exterior walls is reminiscent of a fortress. The monastery dates back to 1711. The monastery's decline began in 1956 and buildings later suffered serious damage in the earthquake.
