MADRID

- Puerta del Sol-The Puerta del Sol is one of the best known and busiest places in Madrid. This is the centre of the radial network of Spanish roads. The square also contains the famous clock whose bells mark the traditional eating of the Twelve Grapes and the beginning of a new year. The New Year's celebration has been broadcast live on national television since December 31, 1962.
- Plaza Mayor- Plaza Mayor is the central square of the Spanish capital of Madrid, near the Puerta del Sol, built in the Habsburg dynasty. Its shape is rectangular, 129 meters long, 94 meters wide, is surrounded by three residential buildings with 237 balconies facing the Plaza. It is a total of nine entries. Cloister open-air cafes, souvenir shops and so on. Square center is Philip who presided over the construction of the equestrian statue of King 3.
- Plaza de la Cibeles & Cibeles Fountain - The Plaza de Cibeles is a square with a neo-classical complex of marble sculptures with fountains that has become an iconic symbol for the city of Madrid. Plaza de Cibeles was originally named Plaza de Madrid, but in 1900, the City Council named it Plaza de Castelar, which was eventually replaced by its current name.
- Gran Vía- Gran Vía is an ornate and upscale shopping street located in central Madrid. Now, the street is known as the Spanish Broadway, and is one of the streets with more nightlife in Europe. It is considered a showcase of early 20th-century architecture, with patterns ranging from Vienna Secession style, Plateresque, Neo-Mudéjar, Art Deco and others.

TOLEDO

- Church of Santo Tome-The church dates from the 12th century, although it was completely rebuilt in the early 14th century by the Count of Orgaz. The tower is one of the best examples of the Mudéjar art characteristic of Toledo.
- Alcantara Bridge - Is a Roman stone arch bridge built over the Tagus River at Alcántara, Spain, between 104 and 106 AD by an order of the Roman emperor Trajan in 98.

GRANADA

- Alhambra Palace & Generalife Gardens- Moorish palace Alhambra, located in the foothills of the Sierra Nevada mountain range. The Alhambra palace complex, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, is one of the most beautiful examples of Islamic architecture in the world and has become a symbol of the city of Granada. Explore the beautiful gardens, and enjoy the wonderful views of the city and the Albaycin's Gypsy quarter.

VALENCIA

- Town Hall of Valencia -Town Hall Square is located in the city center, near the train station and the bullring. And one of the most beautiful and famous squares of Valencia as well as the largest in the city. Surrounded by stately white buildings, including the Town Hall and the Post Office. In the center there are beautiful gardens and a lighted fountain. It can be considered the nerve center of the city '.
- The Estacio Del Nord is the main railway station in Valencia, Spain. It is located in the city centre next to the Plaza de Toros de Valencia, the city's bullring, and 200m from the town hall. This station is named after the CCHNE, the railway company that constructed it and opened it in 1917, which was later nationalized and renamed as RENFE and later on as Adif, the company that currently owns and runs it. It was declared Good of Cultural Heritage in 1987.
- Octagonal Bell Tower-One of Valencia's most iconic monuments in the heart of the city's historic center. The Gothic-style octagonal bell tower was built between the 14th and 15th centuries and, together with its more recent belfry, it rises 63 meters above the ground, providing spectacular views over the city of Valencia and even the sea in the background. For this, visitors have to climb the internal spiral staircase with its 207 steps.

BARCELONA

- Basilica Sagrada Familia- The Basílica i Temple Expiatori de la Sagrada Família is a large Roman Catholic church in Barcelona, Catalonia (Spain), designed by Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí (1852–1926). Although incomplete, the church is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and in November 2010 Pope Benedict XVI consecrated and proclaimed it a minor basilica, as distinct from a cathedral which must be the seat of a bishop.
- Park Guell- The Park Güell is a public park system composed of gardens and architectonic elements located on Carmel Hill, in Barcelona. Carmel Hill belongs to the mountain range of Collserola — the Parc del Carmel is located on the northern face. In 1984, UNESCO declared the park a World Heritage Site under "Works of Antoni Gaudí". At the top of the Grand Cross park, view the panoramic city of Barcelona and the bay.
- Casa Mila- popularly known as La Pedrera meaning the 'The Quarry', is a modernist building in Barcelona, Catalonia, Spain. It was the last civil work designed by Catalan architect Antoni Gaudí, built between the years 1906 and 1910. In 1984 it was declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. Currently, it is the headquarters of the Fundació-Catalunya La Pedrera, which manages the exhibitions, activities and public visits at Casa Mila.
- Casa Batlló -Casa Batlló is a renowned building located in the center of Barcelona and is one of Antoni Gaudí's masterpieces. A remodel of a previously built house has been refurbished several times. The whole building colorful mosaic walls, the roof looks like scales, like human bone pillars as well as mask plastic the balcony is full of magical color. During evening times, this building will be extraordinarily seductive light against the background under the building.
