HANOI

- Water Puppet Show – The puppets are made out of wood and then lacquered. The shows are performed in a waist-deep pool. A large rod supports the puppet under the water and is used by the puppeteers, who normally hidden behind a screen, to control them. Thus the puppet appear to be moving over the water. Today's Vietnamese water puppetry is a unique variation on the ancient Asian puppet tradition.
- Hoan Kien Lake - Hoan Kiem Lake meaning "Lake of the Returned Sword", is a lake in the historical center of Hanoi, the capital city of Vietnam. The lake is one of the major scenic spots in the city and serves as a focal point for its public life.
- 36 Ancient Street – The 36 Ancient Street, near Hoan Kiem lake, has the original street layout and architecture of old Hanoi. Each street then had merchants and households specialized in a particular trade, such as silk traders, jewelry, etc.
- Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum & Residence – When Ho Chi Minh passed away, the granite Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum & Residence was built here to display his embalmed body. It remains a major site of tourism and pilgrimage.
- One Pillar Pagoda – The One Pillar Pagoda is a historic Buddhist temple in Hanoi, the capital of Vietnam. It is regarded alongside the Perfume Temple, as one of Vietnam's two most iconic temples.
- Museum of Ethnology - is a museum in Hanoi, Vietnam, which focuses on the 54 officially recognised ethnic groups in Vietnam. It is widely considered to be the finest modern museum in Vietnam and a tourist attraction in Hanoi.
